

While Men Slept

G. L. Mancino

and Eve. God made everything good, but the Devil spoiled it all with a stroke. Of course, he still sticks around to stir the mess he had made.

I noticed with some surprise a recent Daily Mail article, The Death of Patriotism, which tells us all of the elitist group who are orchestrating one-world government. One aspect of my surprise is that this and other newspapers have been silent while others have been sounding the alarm for many years! Are they sleeping, or have they been wanting the public to sleep? Frankly, the threat of this group, from a practical standpoint, is more evil and more dangerous than was Hitler's impending invasion of the British mainland...and I am not exaggerating. We often hear that we must not forget the Nazi concentration camps, but what about the MANY such camps that I understand are now ready for those who oppose this coming New World Order? Big things have been happening "while men sleep!" There is not room here to tell you more about this now.

Jesus continued His farmer story, saying that the farmer let the wheat and the junky, look-alike tares grow together, but separated them at harvest, putting the wheat in barns and burning the tares. Get the point? Another Bible verse says that "he that sleeps in harvest is a son that causes shame" (Prov. 10:5). Whoever you are and whatever your background, if you are spiritually asleep at such a tremendous harvest time as this world is in right now, it will be to your worst shame in front of Almighty God. Tares do not go to the same place as wheat. Which will it be for YOU?

That Daily Mail article also advertised a book you could buy, while there is far more thorough and reputable information available free if you go to the right web sites. Like I said, we face a horrific threat on the near horizon in this present world. However, an immeasurably greater danger awaits those who are spiritually asleep. Are you awake?

You can awake from sleep (Ephesians 5:14) and be given new Life...Free & NOW!

GOD SPEAKS AND GOD TEACHES! The Bible and human experience confirm it. Plus, God will never contradict His "text book," so judge your experiences by the Bible, not visa versa. God taught young Samuel more in one night (while the priest slept!) than most learn in a lifetime (1 Sam. 3), and He can do the same for you. God teaches from His Word, but also MORE. Are you "hungering and thirsting" for God and HIS Way in you, as Jesus said (Matt. 5:6)? It is my great objective for Britain that I may help awaken such a desire in it's citizens...then they can do the same!

Get ready for The SECOND Christmas!

Gabriel L. Mancino

By September people usually start seeing Christmas items for sale in shops and from adverts in the post. First of all, some people complain that Dec.25 has "pagan origins" and that Jesus wasn't born at that time of the year. To me, Jesus' birth-month is not the important issue. The great fact is, He WAS born, and born for the purpose of saving us from sin by His death and resurrection. The Messiah's mission had already been foretold hundreds of years before by the Old Testament prophets, and is there recorded...unchanged!

Yes, "Christmas" is now largely a hijacked holiday...but only if you allow it to be. You may, even now, determine that "this time 'round," you will be a means of lovingly spreading what Christmas is intended to be about.

Modern "Christmas" tends to add to people's "wear and tear," so why is the title of this article suggesting a second one?! Are we trying to add to your heavy burdens? Two extra bank holidays might be enjoyed, but two Christmases might make people pull their hair out!

My wife and I have a personal friend...a 97 year old lady... who is prepared for Christmas—both Christmases! This woman is one of the most organised people I have ever met...and thoughtful of others. Though not rich, she carefully plans for Christmas cards for various countries and has us buy all the necessary stamps. Our Post Office knows how organised she is, too! She wants to be a blessing in her living and her giving...to shine amid this world's dark times and bring brightness and comfort through celebrating Christ's birth.

Yet, this elderly lady has not waited until her present age to get prepared for the second Christmas, and she keeps this upcoming celebration on the "front burner" of her heart, soul and mind. Christmas reminds us of Jesus' first coming, when He was born in Bethlehem (no matter what BBC 4 says!). But "this same Jesus" (Acts 1:11) will come again, and we must be ready now! This present world appears "ripe" for that event to occur at any time! Businesses are getting ready for Christmas for money's sake. Others get ready for "fun's" sake. WE must be ready for eternity's sake.

FORGET OBAMA! There is practically no difference between Republicans and Democrats, for all who ran on both sides are members of the evil, one-world Counsel on Foreign Relations, etc...except the candidate the media blacked-out: Ron Paul. Read Daniel 2 to see what God will do to the globalist's big ideas. These guys keep you busy with diversions...and you help them a lot, too...but for all the coming world chaos there is but one source of true peace and readiness, and that is in having a right relationship with God...on HIS terms, not yours. And don't put it off, because you can't seek God like turning a light off and on. Seek Him now!

Faith in God's Faithfulness

Visualize this man standing in view of broken walls and burnt houses and gates. The entire city which was to be a spiritual lighthouse to the nations lay in ruins. HOW could such a blessed city become a ruinous heap of rubble? The same happens in individual lives, in families and in nations. God looks down on this world as Jesus did upon a rejecting Jerusalem—weeping.

But that's not the end of the story. Jeremiah is able to express heart-felt confidence in God, saying "it is of the Lord's mercy that we are not consumed; His mercies are new every morning. Great is Your faithfulness!" Read 3:22,23 and following verses. The prophets Habakkuk & Malachi (both in chapter 3 of their books!) give similar expression. There is hope and help in God...even when surrounded by danger, fear and ruin. Jeremiah's shocking exclamation, "HOW!" then is also used to declare the possibility to rejoice even in the midst of surrounding disaster...not because of disaster, but because God's love to us and ours to Him can remain firm through the fire! Charles Wesley's song asks And Can It Be, and the answer is YES!

Courting Disaster

If someone proclaimed a day set aside for praying for more and stronger earthquakes, hurricanes, floods and such like, you would be justified in believing they were absolutely nuts. But what of people and nations who DAILY open wide the doors and windows of their souls to the greatest devastating forces on earth? It is the ultimate madness...but is "the accepted norm." Drop the lightning rods from your hands before you are struck, for the storm clouds have formed all around us!

We had a wonderful camping holiday on a farm near Shrewsbury, the birthplace of Darwin. Yet all around, the entire surrounding landscape spoke to me of a Creator God rather than amoebas becoming humans. It's too bad that liberal BBC 4 has Prof. Dawkins beating the drums of a theory that only aids in destroying the souls of men, women, boys and girls. ALSO, no wonder many orthodox Jews view others as they do—their Talmud has verses as equally malicious to "outsiders" as the Islamic books in that Saudi school here. We'd better get back to Jesus!

How Sleepy People Can Wake Up

Gabriel L. Mancino

August newspapers ran such titles as "Cruel Lenders Seize Homes" relating to the blood-sucking banking industry. However, the International Bankers to which I have referred in various issues of this paper, are the hidden giants who almost entirely control this globe. (See back page article.) They are perhaps the most evil Mafia in existence, no less a "cartel" than the drug cartels of Latin America. They largely control the economy, industry and military of nations world-wide. They play games with the economy...first up then down, create crisis then propose solutions...their solutions!

Abraham's grandson, Jacob, was more interested in climbing the prophecy ladder than the property ladder. Sure, God did bless Jacob with material possessions, but his greatest blessing from God was spiritual; no doubt about it. His brother was going to kill him, and while on the run, Jacob stopped for sleep. God gave him a dream/vision of a ladder extending to heaven on which angels ascended and descended. He awoke and exclaimed, "Surely the Lord is in this place and I didn't know it! How fearful and holy this place is! This is none other than the house of God! This is the gate of heaven!" (Genesis 28: 16,17).

What a way to wake up! But this is very much like what happens when people really wake up from a life of sin and sinning, and receive God's new life in them. People don't realise just how close God is...until He awakens them with a personal revelation of Himself to their hearts and minds.

The "prophecy ladder" to which I referred is that this event pointed forward to Christ, as God's only intended way between heaven and earth...between God and man. We see this in Jesus' words to Nathaniel in John 1:51, and later to Thomas in John 14:6, saying "I am the Way the Truth and the Life, no man comes to the Father, but by Me." Some people refuse to wake up. It is not a matter of lack of evidence nor lack of rest. Rather, it is the result of an intentionally engaged will. When people WILL not come (John 5:40), then they surrender their will to another master. They then find that it is easier, for various reasons, to say Yes to evil and No to God. Wake up like Jacob, and keep awake.

Yes, God cares for our daily earthly needs. Jesus said so. Yet, spiritual and eternal issues are far more important than anything else. Like Jeremiah (opposite article) and like Jesus, Jacob also suffered; only he ending up with a crippled leg directly in connection to his personal encounter with God! God marks all His children. His birthmark which grows on us is likeness to Jesus and to Himself. We already have God's mark on us at birth, since we are made in God's image. Yet, because of sin, we must personally seek and receive from God a renewal of that damaged image we bear. Jesus came and died and rose from the dead, that we might be born anew...brought to life from spiritual death! What an awakening!

The Archbishop of Canterbury should resign NOW. He is aligned with the perverted idolatry of the Old Testament religious leaders who tried to mingle gross idolatry with true worship of the true God. God condemned their action & condemns William's, too. He wants Britain to adopt Sharia Law, rather than uncompromisingly calling Britain back to the Bible. He dares to compare same-sex relationships with God-instituted marriage. If we oppose him, he labels it "outdated hate," though there is no greater example of the timelessness of God's love than the Bible...which clearly calls same-sex relationship SIN. Yes, Britain and the world are debauched by many other sins, as well, but this is no reason to approve that which God clearly condemns.

We meet at Christ Church on the corner of Brent Street and Heriot Road in Hendon (NW4) at 5:45 pm Sundays. Nearest Tube: Hendon Central.
