THESE TIMES* — West Virginian on “The First Black President”

Trying to get to the root of the current world economic crisis, I use what I strongly feel are invaluable quotes, links, etc. A young Samuel Chadwick, while pastor in Leeds, England, also fought the alcohol industry which he saw helped cause untold misery to the population. In court, the industry’s lawyer said to the young minister (as the elder brothers of shepherd-boy David did to him), “With whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness?” The undaunted minister sprung to his feet with the reply: “Never mind the sheep—I’m after the wolf today!” So am I.

I was born and raised in Fairmont, West Virginia (as were my parents), where I attended elementary and high schools. My Michigan wife and I have spent 26 of our 29 married years working in London, England in Christian ministry. The matters I address, and the critical hour America is in, demands that I speak to all Americans. I’m not ashamed of God, Christ or the Bible, yet I assure non-Christians that they will find valuable information in these pages. Arthur Schlesinger once said “For most Americans the Constitution had become a hazy document, cited like the Bible on ceremonial occasions but forgotten in the daily transactions of life.” His linking the Bible and the Constitution as he did, serves my purpose to bring attention to the cause of America’s decline and present danger. I hope that all readers will pass it on to as many others as you can.

On June 20th, 2008, West Virginia was 145 years old! Our flag and seal declare: “Montani Semper Liberi,” meaning “Mountaineers Always Free.” However, the rapidly-changing present world scene most clearly indicates that the freedom of America... including the Freedom of West Virginians...is about to be taken away. Less than a week from Thanksgiving 2008, news reports here in Britain seemed to be programming the general public to accept the demise of America, yet informed Americans have been doing their utmost for generations to warn and inform the American public. Folks, shocking and very-long-planned changes are on the near horizon for the USA and the world. If any of my data seems amiss, please let me know the accurate information and its source. However, don’t quickly swallow the quick, sometimes-arrogant statements of those who say they have “debunked” incriminating arguments. I will give two short video examples of men responding to the very same question; one of which President Obama had said he saw no evidence of the claim...though the claim is TRUE! This claim is of paramount importance to all Americans, so I plead with you to study these pages. My main concern are the issues, not the personalities, but obviously persons are connected to the issues, and must necessarily be included.

ARE YOU AWARE that in 2010, the United States as we have known it will cease to exist. If you think I am joking, then take just a very little time and view the short video clips below from CNN's Lou Dobbs, one of many voices that are trying to inform the public of what is happening in our country. What Dobbs is speaking about is referred to as The Security and Prosperity Partnership, or The North American Union, an agreement signed by Pres. Bush in 2005 along with the leaders of Canada and Mexico. As I understand it, what's left of our Constitution (the perversely-named "Patriot Acts" have already stripped much away from US citizens!) will no longer have any bearing on or protection for us as US citizens. Our dollar, as with the currencies of Canada and Mexico will cease, and will be replaced with what is already minted and called The Amero. This action is being carried out by secrecy, stealth and denial. The European Union was formed similarly over a period of time, first being called The Common Market...as you can see, it's the same wrapping of an "innocent trade agreement." But now in Europe, much sovereignty has been lost and all national currencies on the continent have long been replaced by the Euro. The government denies that US sovereignty and currency will be forfeited, yet the facts seem to differ. In The Trend of International Affairs Since the War (1931), Arnold Toynbee said: "We are at present working discreetly with all our might to wrest this mysterious force called sovereignty out of the clutches of the local nation states of the world. All the time we are denying with our lips what we are doing with our hands." Hey, did you hear that?!! LET TOYNBEE'S WORDS SINK IN, for they clearly portray the strategy of these evil people, who follow Toynbee's views and objectives! Read more of Toynbee's words and the words of other globalists for yourself in the article, The War on Sovereignty at the following link (and push any prejudices aside): <http://www.jbs.org/index.php/issues/independence-a-sovereignty/1863-the-war-on-sovereignty> The above article makes it "clear as crystal" how crafty these people are, AND how stupid they believe you and I are! Their one chief desire is to destroy American Independence. We need to wake up... NOW!

To be fair and give both sides, I will here insert a contradicting rebuttal of the above clip on the Amero. These people boldly state that the bringing into the USA, by law, such a replacement-currency as the Amero will just not happen, at least for 40 years...so they say. Here's that clip:

Amero Debate - CNBC Worldwide 11-28-2006

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SkfzRR1Zzj8&feature=related>

The men in the above clip may be like the false prophets that repeatedly assured the Israelites/Jews that they would not be invaded and conquered by Babylon under Nebuchadnezzar. As the Bible put it, they were saying "Peace Peace when there was no peace." In other words they were telling the citizens, "Everything will be all right." but it wasn't!

Much of my concern has been and is still being voiced by former Presidential candidate, Ron Paul, a Congressman from Texas. Thankfully, there are some others doing likewise in the USA today. Yet, many of my quotes echo the concern of such books as The Day the Dollar Died (1973), by Willard Cantelon.

That is now 35 years ago, and not only has this unparalleled “domestic enemy” to America not been corrected, it is about to put America in the grave. Cantelon’s 149-page book is full of quotes from people such as American and British government leaders, going back to the mid 1800s up the 1970s. Go back 10 years before Cantelon’s book, to 1963 and Kennedy’s assassination. The same threat Ron Paul has been telling America of in recent years, and authors like Cantelon did 35 before, Kennedy did in his magnificent speech to the Press at the Waldorf-Astoria. That is the very threat I believe was behind his assassination, and the crisis of recent years which seems about to come to a horrific crescendo. You may listen to Kennedy’s speech on the internet, in which (after opening humor) he speaks with graciousness, humility, keen insight and true passion for America, and in which he exposes this threat with candour, calmness and courage. That speech may have been somewhat “the last straw” for the perpetrators.

John F. Kennedy Speech (30 min. you can skip first 4 min. intro by Alan Watt, and some by him at the end. Some people believe that this speech help bring about Kennedy’s assassination, as he was revealing the existence of a secret society within America. This is what we could call “domestic” enemies, which all Presidents swear to protect the country from! It is a beautiful speech, and a wonderful example of a leader who really cared about the nation. How long has it been since we have heard such a speech?! He does use some humor in the beginning, but then comes into the burden of his heart.

The extremely serious threat that JFK speaks about in the above speech, is also referred to by former Pres. Eisenhower in the term “the military-industrial complex.” This term was earlier used by that true-blue American marine, Gen. Smedley Butler, who blew the whistle on some very BIG “big shots” that were literally planning a coup within the USA against Franklin Roosevelt back in the 1930s. They needed a man who great numbers of distressed and betrayed WW1 US soldiers would follow, and they thought Gen. Butler was their man....WRONG!! He just met with them enough to gather information against them and upset their apple cart. What a man! But, he was only ONE man who worked against an internal enemy of America. NOW, for generations, America has had an almost innumerable host of “domestic enemies” within its borders, its government and institutions that have infiltrated to destroy our country. Two things bother me about it, though: 1) reference to going back to the gold standard, which is perhaps impossible now since America's gold has likely most (if not all) been confiscated by the Fed/Int'l bankers, 2) the downplaying of the fact of the plot...making it perhaps not in fact, at all, and thus making it appear that a Fascist dictatorship was NOT in the pipeline during FDR's Presidency. However, one example alone gives extra support to anti-American support coming from within, and that is from President Bush's grandfather (1st Pres. Bush's father), Prescott Bush, with his involvement in financing Hitler during WW2. I could give more information about this, as well.

Many people similar to Ron Paul have shown their love of their country and for what is thoroughly American and morally and legally right. Several years ago, someone gave us an audio version of Larry Burkett’s book, The Illuminati. Burkett was a fine Christian man who we heard on radio, giving free and excellent financial counsel to people to help get them out of debt. (Our money system has long-been based on debt. For a simple explanation, see the 47 min. cartoon, called Money As Debt <http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=-9050474362583451279> ). Burkett, formerly in USAF Strategic Air Command, later worked in the Space Program and Center at Cape Canaveral. His 1991 book has an almost-prophetic ring to it, as we see what has actually developed in the world since it was published. What he wrote, and what is developing in America fearfully coincide. Burkett died on July 4th, 2003. The sources from which I have obtained information do not necessarily agree on all details of Burkett's novel, but in the essential matters of American Liberty and the Constitution they are united. Time will tell on other points!

Ron Paul has sometimes been compared to Congressman Louis T. McFadden. On pages 15, 16 you will find heroic speeches by McFadden directly related to what has caused the present economic crisis. Page 27 is specially dedicated to him, where you will find further links, etc. about him. McFadden died (was successfully poisoned on the 3rd assassination attempt!) after speaking out fearlessly and repeatedly in the 1920s-30s against the creation of the Federal Reserve and the acts and intentions of the Federal Reserve. Every American should know what McFadden warned Congress about and what he exposed. He got to the source of the problem. He spoke right to the point, sensibly and with the passion of a man who loved America, its Constitution, and its defended its Liberty from tyrants and enemies "foreign and domestic." Though I do not embrace all beliefs of Henry David Thoreau, yet the following quote from him is relevant at this point: "There are a thousand hacking at the branches of evil to one who is striking at the root." McFadden struck at the root!

A London newspaper had for June 4, 08 headlines: "America's First Black President?," which, of course, referred to Barak Obama. This present article of mine is not a critique of Mr. Obama. My objective is to expose an enormous evil. The evil to which I refer is reflected in the sustained, obvious media black-out regarding Congressman Ron Paul— due to principles and issues he clearly stands for, which are 100% American! It is in this sense that I say that it is Ron Paul who is "black;" i.e. "blacked-out!" The media in the USA and here in the United Kingdom (England, Scotland, Wales and N. Ireland), and likely elsewhere, portrayed that the only Presidential candidates that existed were Obama, Clinton and McCain; of course including the other candidates before they quit—with one exception: Ron Paul, who was still running for President, becoming the last Republican candidate to withdraw from the race. Yet the world media has been treating Ron Paul as if he had never existed. Why? This purposed black-out appears to be only part of other tactics used by those who are seeking for one-world government and control.

The one-world agenda has been their own repeatedly-stated objective! Not so long ago, I viewed two separate internet video clips of Obama and Ron Paul on different occasions but responding to the very same question. The question put to both men is in relation to the existence of the Council on Foreign Relations, and the existence and purpose of the North American Union, alias, Security and Prosperity Partnership. My candid opinion, after viewing these two responses is that with Ron Paul you get an open, honest treatment of the question, whereas with Obama, you don't "get answers," but you get a reply that is shrouded in deceit and evasion, cloaked with "humor." See the 2 videos at the following links:

Since those seeking one-world government planned and succeeded in taking control in the USA very early in the 1900s,(this is VERY well documented, though many are ignorant of the facts or would prefer to live in denial) they also apparently had a meeting from which they decided to purchase the 25 most influential newspapers in America in order to control American thinking nationwide. The existence of this sinister plot was entered by Oscar Callaway in the Congressional Record of 1917, whose words are as follows:

"In March, 1915, the J.P. Morgan interests, the steel, shipbuilding, and powder interest, and their subsidiary organizations, got together 12 men high up in the newspaper world and employed them to select the most influential newspapers in the United States and sufficient number of them to control generally the policy of the daily press...

...They found it was only necessary to purchase the control of 25 of the greatest papers...An agreement was reached. The policy of the papers was bought, to be paid for by the month, an editor was furnished for each paper to properly supervise and edit information regarding the questions of preparedness, militarism, financial policies, and other things of national and international nature considered vital to the interests of the purchasers." (From Wikipedia)

From this long-entrenched, ever-growing position, the strategy and goal promoted by powerful International bankers has become the monstrous media brainwashing of today, which has been keeping their globalist plan shrouded from public gaze, as David Rockefeller himself stated in a 1991 closed-door, Bilberberg meeting, as follows: “We are grateful to The Washington Post, The New York Times, Time Magazine, and other publications, whose directors have attended our meetings and have respected their promises of discretion for almost forty years. It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world if we had been subject to the bright lights of publicity during those years. But the world is now more sophisticated and prepared to march toward a world government. The supranational sovereignty of an intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national auto determination practiced in past centuries.” Do you really understand the impact and consequences of what his words mean!? You should read other David Rockefeller quotes relating to his views and activities. It is evil! Learn about the Bilderbergs.

I noticed in much of my research that the Rockefeller family rises high in the involvement of this one-world agenda of the so-called New World Order. John F. Hylan, former NYC mayor (1918-25), saw this too, and sounded the alarm in no uncertain terms (see page 21). I noted in Wikipedia’s site regarding “Counsel on Foreign Relations in Conspiracy Theories,” that David Rockefeller’s Memoirs are quoted wherein he boldly admits their family’s involvement. That Memoir quote is as follows: ““For more than a century ideological extremists at either end of the political spectrum have seized upon well-publicized incidents ... to attack the Rockefeller family for the inordinate influence they claim we wield over American political and economic institutions. Some even believe we are part of a secret cabal working against the best interests of the United States, characterizing my family and me as 'internationalists' and of conspiring with others around the world to build a more integrated global political and economic structure - one world, if you will. If that's the charge, I stand guilty, and I am proud of it.” - David Rockefeller, "Memoirs" autobiography (2002, Random House publishers), page 405. More Rockefeller quotes are supplied later. If former West Virginia Governor, John D. Rockefeller IV...now Senator Rockefeller, and a CFR member, is also for one-world government—which in practical terms means the demise of America...call it what they will...then I find his ties to West Virginia to be a betrayal of both our state and nation. I agree with Aaron Russo (America:From Freedom to Fascism see p.19) that not all CFR members really know what’s going on, but simply become members for reasons of progress, prestige, position or whatever. Yet, Lincoln well said: “When a man who is honestly mistaken hears the truth, he will either quit being mistaken or cease to be honest.” However, many CFR members DO know the declared objective of the CFR’s founders.

Ron Paul is the only (former) 2008 Presidential candidate I know of that is NOT a member of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR)... AND MARK IT DOWN: The founders and leaders of the CFR have for a main and stated objective, the taking away of the sovereignty of the United States and the bringing in of one-world government. The following quote from Chester Ward, Rear Admiral and former Navy Judge Advocate 1956 – 1960 and a CFR member for 15 years confirms this: “The main purpose of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) is promoting the disarmament of U.S. sovereignty and national independence and submergence into an all powerful, one world government.” How many other US military leaders share this attitude, though they are apparently sworn to uphold the Constitution? The current North American Union (NAU), due to be fully implemented in 2010, is only a part of this current strategy, with its superhighway owned and operated by Spain, and the new currency called the “Amero” (like the “Euro” over here) replacing the money of the US, Canada and Mexico. Current CFR President, Richard N. Haass makes it clear that US sovereignty must be surrendered. Perhaps, in light of “terrorism” fears which have been created and promoted in recent years, a quote from Benjamin Franklin (the man on our $100 bill) might be appropriate: “He that surrenders liberty for security deserves neither.” The NAU is also called the Security and Prosperity Partnership, which is actually a deceptive disguise like the Common Market was for the present European Union; a sly “trade agreement” which was earmarked to effect sovereignty and remove national currencies. The NAU is moving ahead with break-neck speed, likely before there is too much public awareness and resistance...like the “window of opportunity” Rockefeller has spoken about that he felt would only be open and available for a relatively brief period. But they have already been at the job for many decades, and are likely about ready to “close the deal!”

There are numerous organisations linked to the CFR mentioned above. The CFR started the year my mother was born (1921). The Bilderbergs formed the year I was born (1954). The Tri-Lateral Commission (founded by David Rockefeller) was started the year I was “born again” (1973)— the same year abortion in America was legalised. Regardless of what issue is being voted on in Congress, if one group (CFR) can influence the voting (as it has been doing!), then Congress is a farce, infiltrated by those who would introduce destabilizing influences to America and make it ripe for take-over, which it is now! Both Britain and America have long been in the process of purposed destabilization and de-industrialization (not to mention the fact that it clearly appears that both the USA and UK have had their soldiers purposely spread all over the world so that they cannot even protect their own country and citizens!!). The three previously-mentioned organisations, and many others (many of which have David Rockefeller as founder, chairman or such like) have the New World Order/one-world government as an agenda. The Bilderbergs got their name from the hotel where they had their first meeting in the Netherlands in 1954—nine short years after WW2, and started by a former Hitler SS man, Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands, who is now dead. I dare not launch into matters of Nazism in the USA prior to and during WW2, but you might be surprised to do an internet “search” on Prescott Bush, the grandfather of President Bush. I did find it “interesting” that in Wikipedia’s section on Conspiracies relating to the Bilderbergs, that it states that the Bilderbergs are “accused by some” of being involved in the New World Order and in the taking away U.S. sovereignty. As my previous paragraph states, our U.S. sovereignty IS being dissolved! The “claims” are NOT false!

The John Birch Society (JBS) is frowned on by Wikipedia (above). Congressman Larry MacDonald, D-Georgia, was the President of the JBS when he allegedly died on that Korean Air Flight 007 in 1983. My research reveals that Larry MacDonald was a true-blue American who was practical, gracious, with an encyclopaedic mind, and apparently a very healthy sense of humor. I was so glad to see him and listen to him discuss the CFR on two short clips on Youtube, as follows:

Larry McDonald on the New World Order. Pt 1/2 (9 min 50 sec) This is a clip to push Ron Paul for Pres.

I confess that I seem to see the same fingerprints on the downing of KAL 007 and the downing of the THREE Towers in NY in 2001 (Yes, there were three, not just two). Furthermore, perhaps the same fingerprints can be found in President Kennedy’s assassination and McFadden’s. Every US citizen should listen to Kennedy’s 25 minute speech revealing the existence of a secret group whose power is poised to undermine America from within. What a speech! Evidence, as well as genuine questions, burst at the seams to be answered, but the CFR-controlled media keep it all under wraps like they have Ron Paul during the last Presidential campaign. Congressmen MacDonald and Paul were friends, and shared much of the same strongly-traditional American views and principles, which included a return to the US Constitution. I was stunned to learn that Congressman MacDonald was apparently intending to run for the Presidency in the 1988 election, in which he would have been running against former CIA head, George H. W. Bush! They say that the first news that comes over the wire is usually more accurate, because the newscaster hadn’t learned what they are supposed to tell the public! In the news of KAL 007, the first reports...and they were confirmed by various professional and government sources in Korea and Japan...was that KAL had been hit by a Russian missile, yet landed safely, and that there were numerous survivors; among them, Congressman MacDonald! Apparently, initial plans were even commenced by KAL officials to collect the survivors. This was far different reporting than the subsequent flow of news that KAL007 was “blown to bits.” September 2008 made 25 years since the downing of KAL 007.

I viewed some very revealing portions of a debate held in early 2008 at the University of South Carolina, I believe, and somehow under Fox News, in which the then-numerous Republican Presidential candidates were answering questions. Rudy Giuliani initiated a strong difference with Ron Paul, which some saw as a highlight of the debate. What I personally saw was that some of the other candidates seemed to be in united antagonism against one man: Ron Paul. They tried to make Paul look stupid, anti-American, etc. I saw and listened as various men designated to ask the questions each took their turn to make mockery of Paul, but of course with a thin veneer of politeness. Regarding this type of “polite mockery,” John Adams, our 2nd President (our 1st Vice President under Washington) said: “Be not intimidated... nor suffer yourselves to be wheedled out of your liberties by any pretence of politeness, delicacy, or decency. These, as they are often used, are but three different names for hypocrisy, chicanery and cowardice.” (To “wheedle” is to persuade by flattery, smooth words; to coax.) Now, let’s return to that debate! Notwithstanding those verbal assaults, the text-voting showed that Ron Paul won that debate!! Why were these debate results largely hidden from U.S. citizens? And why is it that when more U.S. soldiers financially supported Ron Paul than any other Presidential candidate is this weighty fact withheld from the U.S. population? These are pertinent questions. No other Presidential candidate whole-heartedly wants to take America back to its Founding documents of Liberty, such as the U.S. Constitution, Declaration of Independence and Bill of Rights as Congressman Ron Paul. AND MARK IT DOWN, returning to the Constitution is America’s path to progress and the path to our greatest good—for ourselves and for the rest of the world. However, I warn you, to return to where we should be will most likely precipitate the fiercest resistance, for that which we have foolishly surrendered by negligence, selfishness and apathy over generations, these long-range, one-world government planners will not want to give back! I admit that the one-worlders have for untold decades dumbed-down our education system, thereby purposely leaving generations in ignorance of the great facts which would preserve our country.

Do most American citizens believe that the Federal Reserve Board is a branch of the U. S. Government? IT IS NOT, AND NEVER HAS BEEN! This matter is far more urgent than you can imagine. This is the greatest threat to our liberty, and the threat of which our Founding Fathers warned us repeatedly. Most Americans do not grasp the significance of this...but we MUST! John F. Kennedy saw this and more...before he was assassinated. I understand that JFK was taking steps to curtail the position and power of the Federal Reserve and other related organisations within America. The Federal Reserve is a privately owned bank which has robbed the United States, non-stop, since 1913 (thus our $10.6+ trillion national debt) when President Wilson was influenced, largely by Colonel Edward Mandell House, to sign it into existence. It was House who had earlier selected Wilson as a Presidential candidate, and later became his principal advisor. Wilson had apparently agreed to sign the Bill creating the Federal Reserve, but it was actually voted into existence by Congress two days before Christmas (1913), when most members of Congress were away with their families! Colonel House was held in the highest regard by the “Money Masters” who were organising to control the USA...and the rest of the world. I understand that Colonel House hand-picked the original Federal Reserve Board members, and was considered “the unseen guardian angel of the Federal Reserve system.” Wilson later saw what he was basically conned into doing, and wrote in his memoirs in 1919: “I am a most unhappy man. I have unwittingly ruined my country. A great industrial nation is now controlled by its system of credit. We are no longer a government by free opinion, no longer a government by conviction and the vote of the majority, but a government by the opinion and duress of a small group of dominant men” As I recall, Wilson even weirdly referred to House as “my second personality. He is my independent self. His thoughts and mine are one. If I were in his place, I would do just as he suggested.” It seems that Colonel House had control of Wilson. Shocking! Perhaps it was Wilson’s later awareness of what had happened that caused him (too late!) to dismiss Col. House. The plans for the 1913 creation of the Federal Reserve were laid in top-most secret on what is called Jekyll Island off the coast of Georgia in 1910. G. Edward Griffin has written a book about it titled The Creature From Jekyll Island. You may also listen to Griffin’s lecture about it on Google on the following links:

Very relevant to THESE TIMES, is the book written in 1912 by Colonel House (above). I think it is immensely significant that this book by House is categorised under “Social sciences; Socialism, Communism, Anarchism”! This is the very direction America appears to be going...fast! These International bankers, especially those from America, would give the impression of being “capitalists,” and might seem to be working against themselves to be otherwise. Yet, this book by House, the man they ALL lauded and had faith in, has been followed from then until now. Colonel House’s book is titled Philip Dru, Administrator: A Story of Tomorrow. House is the disguised hero of his book, who was a covert manipulator of prominent political figures. Though a “novel,” it marks the distinct strategy that has been followed down to THESE TIMES. The book tells how a small group of insiders cause a depression, and then bring about the election of a man named Rockland. Rockland gives “fireside chats” (sound familiar?), and launches a program called

“The New Era” (sound familiar?) to strengthen government control of the masses. Eventually, the insiders who control the government, weaken the country deliberately to the point of civil war (sound familiar??!!), which provides them with the excuse for establishing a dictatorship (sound familiar!!!) under Philip Dru.

This concept of a single dictator was promoted in the Oxford lectures of John Ruskin here in England, and further spread through one of his students, Cecil Rhodes, a very wealthy man in diamonds and gold from South Africa and who was backed by these International bankers. (Clinton was a “Rhodes” scholar” at Oxford here.) Rhodes apparently promoted the less controversial ideas of Ruskin openly, but Ruskin’s more radical ideas through his founding of a secret society, with its “circle of initiates.” Rhodes’ group had its inner circle, with circles outside, and another and another, with those on the outer circles knowing little or nothing at all of who was in the inner circle nor what they were doing. No wonder many affiliated with the CFR are quite ignorant of the inner workings, especially while they bask in the perks which CFR association brings. After Rhodes’ death, Lord Alfred Milner, Governor General and High Commissioner of South Africa, took the reins and through his industrial and financial involvements, became one of the greatest political and financial powers in the world. Milner is said to have filled his “circle” with young intellectuals from Oxford and Toynbee Hall, which young men then moved into power positions of government and finance. These young initiates set up “Roundtables” in other countries, including the USA before 1913. One of their outer circle creations was the CFR, which was allegedly a “front,” connected to J. P. Morgan & Co. of New York in association with the Roundtable group, and which had Colonel House as one of its main architects. I will remind you of an earlier quote which fits in here: In The Trend of International Affairs Since the War (1931), Arnold Toynbee wrote: “We are at present working discreetly with all our might to wrest this mysterious force called sovereignty out of the clutches of the local nation states of the world. All the time we are denying with our lips what we are doing with our hands.” The International bankers and the media have used this same strategy for generations (WHILE WE SLEPT!) to bring us where we are today. Some strongly allege that the CFR in America is a sister organisation, to The Royal Institute of International Affairs (Chattham House, London).

It appears certain that the big bankers like J. P. Morgan actually orchestrated the financial crashes of 1909, 1929, etc. As Charles Lindbergh’s father, a Congressman, observed BEFORE the 1929 crash: “Under the Federal Reserve Act [financial] panics are scientifically created. The present panic [1920] is the first scientifically created one, worked out as we figure a mathematical equation.” These evil people (not Lindbergh) create a crisis, then move society (with media aid, which they control) to believe that another course is better for the country. They publicly cry out against the very things they secretly create and promote, so as to fool the people. Various great leaders, both in America and here in Britain, saw what was happening behind the scenes that was controlling governments and nations—even prior to 1900! These great perceptive leaders were not mindless, “disgruntled” crackpots. Yet, even so far back as their times, they were filled with fear of such power, and feared to speak in condemnation of such things “above a whisper,” to use Pres. Wilson’s words. No wonder Thomas Jefferson wrote that a Central bank in America would be a greater danger to our liberty than a standing army!

This evil network of power has grown to monstrous proportion. It is truly “The Secret Government.” Aviator, Charles Lindbergh’s Congressman-father who died in 1924 said (in reference to President Wilson signing into existence the Federal Reserve Act of 1913): “This Act establishes the most gigantic trust on earth. When the President signs the Bill, the invisible government of the Monetary Power will be legalised... The worst legislative crime of the ages is perpetrated by this banking and currency Bill.” As a direct result of the birth of the Federal Reserve (for then the US government was being loaned the money at interest, which the Fed printed for it), the U.S. Government began charging income tax on your personal wages, which many claim is against the U.S. Constitution. The creation of income tax was simply to make it possible for the U.S. Government to TRY to pay against the huge debt created by, and now owed to, these money-lending parasites that care not for the nation or its people, but only for themselves, and to help fund such organisations and activities as further deteriorate the nation. Napoleon assessed these criminals very well when he said, “When a government is dependent upon bankers for money, they and not the leaders of the government control the situation, since the hand that gives is above the hand that takes. Money has no motherland; financiers are without patriotism and without decency; their sole object is gain.”

For reasons such I have listed, Ron Paul has made it clear that he would abolish the Federal Reserve AND the IRS. He would also bring back our U.S. troops from Iraq and Afghanistan since the war is illegal—a move that would be neither left-wing nor right-wing or anti-American. Do you know why this “war” is illegal? It is illegal because it is the duty of CONGRESS—and no one else— to declare war, according to the U.S. Constitution, and that was not done— neither for the present “war,” nor in Vietnam nor even in the Korean Conflict, as I understand it. Of course, the evil, one-world globalists like the CFR, which openly want to destroy America’s sovereignty, have tried to re-interpret the Constitution in such a way as to steal Congress’s sole authority to declare war! Congress needs to face its duty. If America is to go to war, Congress is to declare it. The United Nations is NOT America, nor is it a substitute for the U.S. Constitution. And it is no use for any President to justify America going to war by reason of what such a war supposedly accomplishes, if that war is commenced without a Declaration of War by Congress. Such a war is against the U.S. Constitution—the very document which Presidents are sworn to uphold, but the very document which has been undermined by such things as the barrage of the newly-enacted laws of THESE TIMES, such as the so-called “Patriot Acts;” the names of which are a mocking rape of the long-beloved term.

Abolishing the “Federal” Reserve would be like removing a deadly cancer by means of radical surgery. Like a long-ignored cancer, it has compromised the body (the USA!) and is preparing for shut-down. Unlike normal cancer, however, this “network of evil” is a moral and spiritual cancer! I have purposely used the word, “evil,” to describe the group that America faces as perhaps its worst domestic enemy. As I have said, each President is sworn into office to protect the Constitution and the American people against enemies, “foreign AND domestic.” For generations this has largely not been the case, notwithstanding the ritual “swearing into office” by oath. Ron Paul appears to have been the only Presidential candidate openly declaring that he would make a radical turn back to the Constitution, which is the right thing to do. In reference to the cancer above, I used the word, “evil,” for I recognise that to return to the Constitution and all that our Founding Fathers declared vital to the preservation of our true liberty, God Almighty—and this clearly means the God of the Bible—is to be Central. For the evil network I have spoken against, THEIR central plank is a central bank, which I understand from the words of Karl Marx, is foundational to a Communist-Socialist regime. I heard Pres. Bush say that he didn’t mind a dictatorship...if he was the dictator! To be honest. I must confess a difference with Ron Paul. He graciously stated the difference between Constitutionalists and the Internationalist, one-worlders as simply a difference in ideology. I feel I’d have to state it much stronger. The creators, planners and leaders of this group are EVIL. Read Toynbee’s words again. What deception! Far different than a true American who follows in the steps of the Founding Fathers, not to mention the steps of God and Christ!

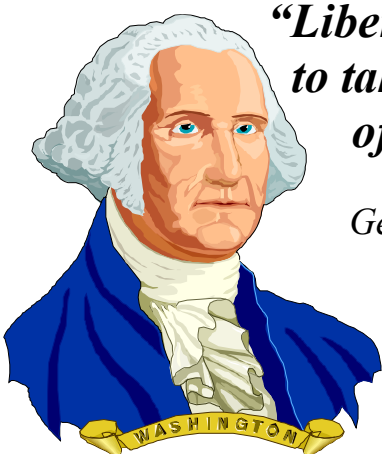

A network of Central banks was formed across Europe all through the 1800s, though starting before that. These evil planners created the same in the USA at the 1913 birth of the Federal Reserve (though Rothschild’s had established The First and Second Banks of the United States; the first of which Pres. Jackson “killed” — Hallelujah!) James P. Warburg, son of Paul Warburg who was the architect of the Federal Reserve and the CFR, stated to the US Senate with utmost confidence on Feb. 17, 1950: “We will have a world government whether you like it or not. The only question is whether that government will be achieved by conquest or consent.” Ever since the Federal Reserve’s birth year, 1913, they have been draining America and, thereby, creating such national debt as has brought our country to its present dire situation. The recent “government bailouts” is a farce, for the US government is broke! They just borrow more and go deeper into debt...to these evil money lenders at the Federal Reserve! America needs to return not only to its Constitution, but to the God referred to its early foundational documents. The Federal Reserve may placate or deceive the American people by retaining the “In God We Trust” on the US coinage, yet the “God” of this evil network is clearly not the God of the Bible.

America needs to turn in whole-hearted repentance TOWARD, genuine trust IN and full obedience TO God. The worldly comforts and other such deceptive and temporary pleasures of time and sense, which have drawn the hearts and lives of Americans from genuine love of God, have now brought us to a point of danger as has never been faced before. The early American colonists bravely faced dangers and privations in their conflict, and so must Americans today, yet look to Almighty God for the help that is certainly needed. Benjamin Franklin stated that perhaps THE MAIN CAUSE OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR against Britain was exactly what we have been facing by stealth through the Federal Reserve. Britain was trying to force the colonies to stop printing their own money (which was interest-free like ours was before the Fed was created), and use the interest-infected, debt-laden money from the money-lenders from the central bank here in England— just the same as what the Federal Reserve has been doing against Americans now for almost 100 years. May it not celebrate its Centenary (2013)!! America must act immediately, radically, personally and unitedly. One tactic these evil people may very well use is to cause division and thus confusion, by getting Americans fighting one another, then controlling the reports through the media. Wherever America needs to repent and make open restitution to those it has wronged, it must do so with the boldest humility. One of our greatest Patriotic Hymns says: “God shed His grace on Thee.” America is in urgent need of the grace and mercy of God, but Americans must do their part, for God cannot be expected to “shed His grace” upon a disobedient nation full of substitute gods, even if that nation, like ancient Israel in the Old Testament, maintains an outward show of religiosity. Empty religion led to the destruction of Jerusalem on more than occasion, and the humiliating and catastrophic captivity of the nation.

I have painted the present picture in the gloomiest colors of the imminent danger that it is. However, I am confident that the results of a deep and genuine national repentance would be immeasurable. A flood-tide of national repentance and obedience to God could bring about a tsunami of glory such as America has never seen. Then we could truly sing: “Glory, glory, hallelujah! His truth is marching on!” The globalists of the CFR and Federal Reserve stated that “we shall have one-world government, whether we like it or not; and willingly or unwillingly!” So, apply the consequences if they succeed: America will lose its sovereignty and each citizen their national and Constitutional freedom “whether you like it or not.” This means that if Americans opt to avoid true repentance for fear of losing anything, they shall, at the hands of this evil network, lose everything! This is not imagination. This is stated objective— “like it or not.” But it doesn’t need to happen. America can be saved from such an end, and it will IF Americans act now, and then stand firm, even in the face of the fiercest opposition of hell. God blessed Abraham in order for Abraham to be a channel of blessing to the rest of the world. This is the same purpose of God’s past blessing on America. The United States is intended not merely to be a place for the perverted freedom of self-indulgence. America is blessed of God to be a blessing to the rest of the world. The United States has largely lost that glorious stature, yet if America genuinely, thoroughly and immediately turns around, it may save itself and be the blessing to the world that God intended it to be. God says to us as He said to ancient Israel: “If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land. Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer made in this place” (2 Chron. 7:14,15). On the other hand, apathy and inaction cannot expect deliverance by God.

Ron Paul has been “black-out” because the network of evil to which I have referred does not want America restored. This is their stated objective, and the unfolding reality confirms that this is the case. This CFR/Federal Reserve-controlled media denies and/or counteracts all success achieved by “The Ron Paul Revolution.” Ron Paul wants to get America back to the Constitution. I would go further and make it plain that America must go BEYOND the Constitution, to the God of the Bible that made that Constitution a possible and blessed reality. And let this sink in deeply: Liberty and Anarchy are NOT synonyms.

PART 2

An Open Letter To A Friend

Slightly edited, and sent not long ago. Please don't mind my few spiritual comments!

Please read it as if it is a long (and hopefully interesting!) newspaper or magazine article that deals with the critical issue effecting the whole world, including America (as your email spoke of). Yes, this took me a very long time to write and put together. I pray that it will not be a stillborn production.

Thanks for the clip (re: Fannie/Freddie, which included news of the seizure of U.S. citizens' properties). I have very strong feelings and views regarding the present economic situation which has gripped America and the rest of the world. What should I say first!? Actually, the very first thing I must say is all of this is a big part of a picture that points out one grand fact: this is a spiritual war! Though there are certainly matters which we must take in hand from a practical standpoint in our "worldly affairs," yet we press ahead knowing full-well that our hope as well as our fight is spiritual, not fighting against or trusting in men. I have often been telling people that we are likely seeing the end part of Nebuchadnezzar's dream-statue, which will then be smashed by the Stone hewn out of the mountain! (Daniel chapter 2).

I am deeply, deeply disappointed at those of various backgrounds who try to put words in your mouth or make a person look stupid (in order to ridicule them into submission) or try to intimidate them if they hold certain beliefs, as if they are a nut case or just another gullible person who believes wild "conspiracy theories." I do not consider myself "better than others," such as those mentioned in the previous sentence. The "conspiracy theorists" I believe could be called Jefferson, Franklin, Madison & Co.! In other words, I go directly to some of the most serious words of warning our Founding Fathers (FF) gave regarding the greatest threat to our Republic (for that is what it is...remember the Pledge of Allegiance?). Then, take what the FF warned us about and compare that to the Federal Reserve, and you will see that this is precisely what they warned against. I am saying that the cause of our present economic situation is the existence of the Federal Reserve. Here are some quotes from Thomas Jefferson:

"I, however, place economy among the first and most important republican virtues, and public debt as the greatest of the dangers to be feared. "

"I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. Already they have raised up a moneyed aristocracy that has set the Government at defiance. The issuing power should be taken from the banks and restored to the people to whom it properly belongs."

"If the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of their money, first by inflation and then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around them (around the banks), will deprive the people of their property until their children will wake up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered." Note that he so insightfully said "and the corporations that grow up around them!" (as in that clip you sent!)

As I was growing up, we were not really being told REAL history, and thereby being warned of the greatest dangers to our great nation; made great by God. And I will repeat that though there are big issues that need to be resolved/cured/whatever you want to call it...our greatest need is to get back to God... the God of the Bible! I have discovered historical FACTS (not speculations) that every American should know...and which I found during the past 2 years.

Now, having seen those quotes by Jefferson, let me insert one by the President who followed him, James Madison, who is also one of our Founding Fathers who is also called The Father of the Constitution, or Father of the Bill of Rights (which are NOW being destroyed!! by the so-called Patriot Acts [what national blasphemy!] and soon [2010] by the North American Union...big time!! Wake up, America! It's no joke! and they lie and deny about its purpose). Now Madison's quote:

"History records that the money changers have used every form of abuse, intrigue, deceit, and violent means possible to maintain their control over governments by controlling the money and its issuance. "

I often refer to these International Bankers/Money Lenders/Money Masters as EVIL for this very reason: in their dementia of godlessness, they have stopped at nothing (including murder of leaders) to seize control of America's wealth and power, and even the entire country itself, in their mad quest to control the world. The greatness of America had to be plundered and destroyed, for it was the chief obstacle in their domination of the entire world. The control of America's economy was the stated objective of the International Bankers clear back during Lincoln's Presidency! They feared the glorious liberty and consequent power of the United States, as I demonstrate by a London Times article from that period (see p.17). What I said in the red (above) is what Jefferson's first quote above says, and also what people like Ron Paul (he did wonderfully in the race for the 2008 Presidency, no matter how the Media blacked him out...or mocked/smeared him) have been saying...Get the power of printing the money back into the hands of the US government, and out of the hands of this banking cartel! Are we so stupid? But mark it down, this evil cartel has created wars and financial crisis for many generations, and if their feathered nest is stripped away, they likely have a horrific, ghastly plan already prepared to unleash on America, as they did twice in the 1800s, by helping cause the War of 1812 and The Civil War. They want control, and they are willing to destroy America to get it and keep it.

Our Founding Fathers knew very well the danger of having a central bank in private hands, which is exactly what the Federal Reserve is. It is NOT a branch of the US government! Benjamin Franklin stated that the main cause of the Revolutionary War lay right here. America is facing the very same thing right now!! And the Federal Reserve is not alone, for other organisations have been created and linked to assist it in the plan of world domination, such as the Counsel on Foreign Relations (1921) which has the stated objective of dissolving the sovereignty of the United States! After the Fed was started craftily in 1913, then immediately the US government, that previously issued interest-free currency as their sole right via the US Constitution, NOW was LOANED money AT INTEREST by this evil group of International bankers, most of whom are foreign! May I remind you that the only time Jesus used force was in the very situation of which I speak: money lenders that oppress the common people. God condemned this in the OT. I am not suggesting force! The powerful IRS which was created soon after the Fed itself so as to insure that the Fed gets paid back for the loans it makes to the government! This is world's greatest rip-off and scam...and our national debt simply grows.

Now, getting back to that previous Madison quote, it appears to me that the incident of Nov. 2007, of which I just learned yesterday, is an up-to-date example of how these money lenders, i.e. the Fed of today, will use force to hold on to their monopoly. The incident of which I speak is the FBI raid on the millions of dollars worth of gold, silver, etc. of those who LEGALLY minted the Liberty Dollar. Unless I am mistaken, the FBI...perhaps under the control & authority of the real boss, i.e. the Federal Reserve...confiscated...no, STOLE the property of others. So far as I know, the government has not laid any crime against them, so if there is no crime, then where is all that money and why don't they give it back? (Have they yet?) The Fed claimed that the Liberty Dollar people were trying to undermine the dollar and make it crash, but this is exactly what the Fed and that evil Alan Greenspan was doing! In fact, the Liberty Dollar said the same, that it is the Fed that is destroying the dollar! As I said, this is exactly what happened in colonial America. King George was trying to force the colonists to stop use their "Colonial Script" (interest-free money they themselves printed), and instead use money from the Bank of England...at interest! By the way, the Bank of England is just another private central bank that prints "debt money" and loans it to governments at interest. William Patterson, who started the bank of England in 1694 stated; "The bank hath benefit of interest on all monies which it creates out of nothing!" They print money that really has no backing, and then loan it at interest! This process is what they call "fiat currency;" i.e. money out of nothing. The following 7 min. clip may help explain, and it includes an interview with Ron Paul by Aaron Russo who died of cancer last Oct--what a loss to America! <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=styYIG-fiEc> Some of the claims of Paul in that short clip are confirmed by the following quote by former Senator Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz. (1909-1998):

"Most Americans have no real understanding of the operation of the international money lenders. The accounts of the Federal Reserve System have never been audited. It operates outside of the control of Congress and manipulates the credit of the United States." Goldwater's statement agrees with one I later insert by Henry Ford, however, I will insert another confirming quote from John Adams as follows: "All the perplexities, confusion and distress in America arise not from defects in their Constitution or Confederation, nor from want of honor or virtue, so much as downright ignorance of the nature of coin, credit, and circulation." (There are more Adams quotes later, but I will insert another that is extremely relevant at this point.) John Adams said: "There are two ways to conquer and enslave a nation. One is by the sword. The other is by debt." THIS IS EXACTLY WHAT THE INTERNATIONAL BANKERS HAVE BEEN DOING, AS ONE HAS DESCRIBED IT, BY THE CREATION OF INEXTINGUISHABLE DEBT! America needs to get rid of the Federal Reserve System, and return to an interest-free, Constitutionally-provided system, though now it may not be able to be backed by gold as before, since America's gold has likely all been stolen by these evil people.

There seems to be sufficient grounds for assurance that if gold can no longer be the backing of our monetary system, there is adequate historical example/precedent for alternative currency. The Liberty Dollar, mentioned in the paragraph above is one example. However, over here in England, in 1100, King Henry I created what is called The Tally Stick System that lasted for about 726 years until 1826. It was a method which the king was satisfied would take the monetary manipulation power from the goldsmiths (like our present Fed!). Of course, just like the Fed attacked the Liberty Dollar, so the Bank of England attacked the Tally Stick System for it was outside their controlling money system. This is the same as the European International bankers hated Lincoln's Greenbacks, for the Greenbacks took the monetary control out of their hands. Historically, people have used sea shells, feathers and even yak dung for currency! There are alternatives!

By the way, in case my earlier reference to Mr. Greenspan being evil seems extreme, I here insert one short clip regarding him. Some people may not agree with some citizens' manner of protest (though it WAS non-violent), yet there is also in the clip a very passionate and, I add, heroic, Congressman that confronts Greenspan. Ron Paul has also protested in Congress to Greenspan (whose views about the Fed changed after he became its Chairman!) and also protested to the present Fed chairman, Bernanke. Here's that eye-opening clip:

http://www.prisonplanet.com/articles/september2007/210907\_b\_greenSPAN.htm

A central bank is one of the chief planks of Communism. Among the International bankers are the Rothschilds, who during the 1800s had central banks in London, Paris, Frankfurt, Vienna and Naples. I understand that in the 1860s it was estimated that the Rothschild dynasty owned half the world's wealth. I'm sorry to say but these bankers help to orchestrate wars and then fund both sides of the conflict, because war provides their greatest gains! This is a reason why people refer to the "military-industrial complex." They tried to get a central bank into the new nation of America and, for a while, the Rothschilds succeeded. But when their charter came up for renewal, our people saw through what they were doing and refused to renew the charter. So what happened? As I understand, good to their threat, they helped orchestrate (and fund) the War of 1812. One man that fought these economy tyrants is the man on our $20 bill: Andrew Jackson. Though he was maligned, etc and even almost assassinated (a man had 2 pistols and both misfired!), yet he won the battle. The following is what Jackson warned the American people:

"The bold effort the present (central) bank had made to control the government ... are but premonitions of the fate that await the American people should they be deluded into a perpetuation of this institution or the establishment of another like it."

The following is what he boldly told the International bankers:

"Gentlemen, I have had men watching you for a long time and I am convinced that you have used the funds of the bank to speculate in the breadstuffs of the country. When you won, you divided the profits amongst you, and when you lost, you charged it to the bank. You tell me that if I take the deposits from the bank and annul its charter, I shall ruin ten thousand families. That may be true, gentlemen, but that is your sin! Should I let you go on, you will ruin fifty thousand families, and that would be my sin! You are a den of vipers and thieves. I intend to rout you out, and by the grace of the Eternal God, WILL rout you out."

Jackson DID succeed, and for a long time America was free from their clutches. When asked what his greatest Presidential success was, I understand Jackson replied, "I killed the bank!" (meaning the Int'l bankers' one). I believe that statement is even engraved on his tombstone. However, in time, the Int'l bankers were at it again. I read that Otto von Bismarck, then Chancellor of Germany felt that it was the Int'l bankers that greatly caused the American Civil War, to "divide and conquer." Lincoln himself expressed the following:

"I see in the near future a crisis approaching that unnerves me and causes me to tremble for the safety of my country; corporations have been enthroned, an era of corruption in High Places will follow, and the Money Power of the Country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the People, until the wealth is aggregated in a few hands, and the Republic is destroyed. I feel at this moment more anxiety for the safety of my country than ever before, even in the midst of war." It sounds like he is describing the Federal Reserve System.

Upon the death of Lincoln, Bismarck said,

"The death of Lincoln was a disaster for Christendom. There was no man in the United States great enough to wear his boots and the bankers went anew to grab the riches. I fear that foreign bankers with their craftiness and tortuous tricks will entirely control the exuberant riches of America and use it to systematically corrupt civilisation."

So much more could be said to cover the whole historical growth of this horrible creature that has, like a monstrous leach, been sucking the lifeblood of the country and draining its resources dry since its birth in 1913. Yes, there were people who cried out against it, even back then, and I cannot understand why way back then, when people were generally more moral (you understand what I mean), WHY couldn't or didn't they stop this thing?! Great men and great Congressmen cried out against it; some, such as Thomas Edison, giving logical reason that such a system is wholly illogical. Even Edison's friend, the great inventor, Henry Ford said:

"It is well enough that people of the nation do not understand our banking system, for if they did, I believe there would be a revolution before tomorrow morning." Hmm...interesting! However, Ford went on to say: "The aim of these financiers is world control by the creation of inextinguishable debts."

Perhaps the same principle applies to another statement by Bismarck, as follows:

"The less people know about how sausages and laws are made, the better they'll sleep at night." For such reason as this, I wrote two articles in the Sept. 2008 issue of my little paper, which were titled "While Men Slept" and "How Sleepy People Can Wake Up." But I'm sure you agree that, nationally as well as spiritually, we MUSTN'T sleep! We recall that oft-quoted truth made by Wendell Phillips, the abolitionist and advocate for the American Indians: "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

Yet, in view of this tendency to apathy, sleepiness...call it what you will...I will here insert a shocking quote from the British economist, John Maynard Keynes, who I believe embraced and promoted the evil as is represented by the Federal Reserve System. Keynes sums up the evil nature of these robbers of the wealth of nations thus:

"By a continuing process of inflation, governments can confiscate, secretly and unobserved, an important part of the wealth of their citizens. There is no subtler, no surer means of overturning the existing basis of society than to debauch the currency. The process engages all the hidden forces of economic law on the side of destruction, and does it in a manner which not one man in a million is able to diagnose." AND THIS IS JUST WHAT HAS BEEN HAPPENING! No wonder Keynes sometimes quoted Lenin!

Speaking of Liberty, as I did above, here are some more quotes come from one of our Founding Fathers, John Adams, our first ever Vice President (two terms under Washington) and our second President, as follows:

"Liberty cannot be preserved without a general knowledge among the people, who have... a right, an indisputable, unalienable, indefeasible, divine right to that most dreaded and envied kind of knowledge, I mean the characters and conduct of their rulers." (America needs to return to moral quality in its leaders, but also in its citizens. This is why I do not budge from the call to genuine national repentance and restitution!)

"Be not intimidated... nor suffer yourselves to be wheedled out of your liberties by any pretence of politeness, delicacy, or decency. These, as they are often used, are but three different names for hypocrisy, chicanery and cowardice."

"There is danger from all men. The only maxim of a free government ought to be to trust no man living with power to endanger the public liberty." (But I am afraid this is exactly what we are seeing unfold before our eyes today!)

"The moment the idea is admitted into society that property is not as sacred as the law of God, and that there is not a force of law and public justice to protect it, anarchy and tyranny commence." (Again, this is what I seemed to see in that Fannie/Freddie clip you sent.)

"You have rights antecedent to all earthly governments: rights that cannot be repealed or restrained by human laws; rights derived from the Great Legislator of the universe."

"The Revolution was effected before the War commenced. The Revolution was in the minds and hearts of the people; a change in their religious sentiments of their duties and obligations ... This radical change in the principles, opinions, sentiments, and affections of the people, was the real American Revolution." (I have repeatedly told people that any "revolution" that avoids a true return to God and a genuine purpose to love and obey Him is a "revolution" that is lacking at the core. It appears to me that Adams held a similar opinion, as this and the previous two quotes would imply.)

I have given many quotes from people of the past, especially from our Founding Fathers. However, there were others that spoke out, as I stated earlier, even during the time when the Federal Reserve was being wickedly planned... yes, it was wickedly contrived and executed! I can supply proof. It's evil. They actually plotted the birth of the Federal Reserve on an island off the coast of Georgia called Jekyll Island with an unbelievable level of secrecy in 1910, I believe. G. Edward Griffin has written a book called The Creature from Jekyll Island, that talks about it. Two different full-length presentations about it are at the following links: <http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=6507136891691870450> and <http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=-8484911570371055528&hl=en> I have viewed some of his stuff, but admit I have yet to see these.

Though I have not viewed the presentations provided immediately above, I HAVE viewed more presentations than I could dare estimate. One such is the well-documented historical presentation...yes it's 3 1/2 hrs long!... called The Money Masters: How International Bankers Gained Control of America. Frankly, I believe it should be part of the curriculum in schools, colleges and universities across America. I got the impression, because of things near the very end, that it may have been the production of someone with Catholic background, but don't let that possibility put you off! It has fantastic historical data. You may view this in its entirety at the following link: <http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=-515319560256183936> There are other presentations concerning the same or similar subject, most of which are shorter. One such, which I think may have connection to The Money Masters one, is called The Monopoly Men, which is less than an hour long. There are a few aspects, since being made by worldly people, that I apologize for. It is found at the following link:

<http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=3388799387341337020&q=&hl=en>

In the last-given presentation, The Monopoly Men, it is demonstrated how the International Bankers/Fed orchestrated and funded wars for their own profit. I hope you watch this for yourself. However, to corroborate this, I would draw your attention to an American man I recently discovered, and whom I admire. He was a tremendous US military man, whose life I will now insert a link to. As a great American, his credentials (in my opinion) stand head and shoulders above most others. He, too, spoke out without fear against the power/money big-shots that apparently tried to get him to lead a coup against the government. But they found that he wasn't a traitor to our country. (By the way, that whole episode got swept under the carpet with silence!) I say What a man! Perhaps you may say, What a name! His name is Major General Smedley Darlington Butler! No joke! Here's a link to his Wikipedia biography: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Smedley\_Butler
You will see toward the bottom of that Wikipedia biography how Butler, a man who loved his country, summed up his long military career.

Again, back to the time when the Federal Reserve was created, perhaps its greatest foe was the fearless and outspoken Congressman, Louis T. McFadden (1876-1936), R-PA, Chairman of House Banking and Currency Committee. Two attempts were made on his life. The third tragically succeeded. People have tried to discredit him and falsely make him out as an anti-Semite.

Congressman McFadden said the following:

"What is needed here is a return to the Constitution of the United States. We need to have a complete divorce of Bank and State. The old struggle that was fought out here in Jackson's day must be fought over again... The Federal Reserve Act should be repealed and the Federal Reserve Banks, having violated their charters, should be liquidated immediately. Faithless Government officers who have violated their oaths of office should be impeached and brought to trial. Unless this is done by us, I predict that the American people, outraged, robbed, pillaged, insulted, and betrayed as they are in their own land, will rise in their wrath and send a President here who will sweep the money changers out of the temple." (Speech in Congress June 10, 1932) During this speech, MacFadden also made the following statements:

"We have in this country one of the most corrupt institutions the world has ever known. I refer to the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Banks, hereinafter called the FED. They are not government institutions. They are private monopolies which prey upon the people of these United States for the benefit of themselves and their foreign customers." and he said further at that same time...

"The Federal Reserve (Banks) are one of the most corrupt institutions the world has ever seen. There is not a man within the sound of my voice who does not know that this Nation is run by the International Bankers."

"Some people think the Federal Reserve Banks are US government institutions. They are not... they are private credit monopolies which prey upon the people of the US for the benefit of themselves and their foreign and domestic swindlers, and rich and predatory money lenders. The sack of the United States by the Fed is the greatest crime in history. Every effort has been made by the Fed to conceal its powers, but the truth is the Fed has usurped the government. It controls everything here and it controls all our foreign relations. It makes and breaks governments at will."

"The Federal Reserve Bank of New York is eager to enter into close relationship with the Bank for International Settlements....The conclusion is impossible to escape that the State and Treasury Departments are willing to pool the banking system of Europe and America, setting up a world financial power independent of and above the Government of the United States....The United States under present conditions will be transformed from the most active of manufacturing nations into a consuming and importing nation with a balance of trade against it." (quoted in the NY Times, June 1930)

"(The Great Depression resulting from the 1929 Stock Market crash) was not accidental. It was a carefully contrived occurrence....The international bankers sought to bring about a condition of despair here so they might emerge as rulers of us all." (testified in Congress, 1933)

"Mr. Chairman, I see no reason why citizens of the United States should be terrorized into surrendering their property to the International Bankers who own and control the Federal Reserve." (Speech to the House of Representatives, Congressional Record-- 9 March, 1933)

Also in 1933 McFadden challenged his hearers with these words:

"Open the books ... and you will be staggered to see how much American money has been taken from the United States Treasury for the benefit of Russia. Find out what business has been transacted for the State Bank of Soviet Russia, by its correspondent, the Chase Bank of New York.” I believe that McFadden was well aware that much funding for the Russian Revolution in 1917 came from the newly-formed Federal Reserve! Is this the reason David Rockefeller said at the Kremlin in 1977 “My congratulations on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of the October Revolution”? They were behind it THEN, and have been to the present day, and America’s time is running out.

Milton Friedman (1912-2006) Nobel Prize winning economist, called “the ultimate guru of the free market system” stated the following:

“I am myself persuaded, on the basis of extensive study of the historical evidence, that... the severity of each of the contractions - 1920-21, 1929-33, and 1937-38 - is directly attributable to acts of commission and omission by the Reserve authorities and would not have occurred under earlier monetary and banking arrangements.” (From his book, Capitalism and Freedom)

“The power to determine the quantity of money... is too important, too pervasive, to be exercised by a few people, however public-spirited, if there is any feasible alternative. There is no need for such arbitrary power... Any system which gives so much power and so much discretion to a few men, [so] that mistakes - excusable or not - can have such far reaching effects, is a bad system. It is a bad system to believers in freedom just because it gives a few men such power without any effective check by the body politic - this is the key political argument against an independent central bank.”

George W. Malone, (1890-1961) Rep. Senator-Nevada, speaking before Congress in 1957, said “I believe that if the people of this nation fully understood what Congress has done to them over the last 49 years, they would move on Washington; they would not wait for an election... It adds up to a preconceived plan to destroy the economic and social independence of the United States!”

W. T. Stead, the great British newspaper editor and friend of William Booth (founder of the Salvation Army), who apparently helped Booth write the book, In Darkest England, And the Way Out, ended up in jail, though standing for truth. When visited by another friend, the friend exclaimed words like “Why, Stead, what are you doing in there?!?” to which Stead instantly asked, “What are YOU doing out THERE?!?” Stead was a man of great character and daring. He sadly went down with the Titanic. America’s present situation needs men and women of courage, and I add...men and women that love the God of the Bible, as well as their nation!

President Woodrow Wilson, who signed into existence the Federal Reserve back in 1913, later wrote:

“I am a most unhappy man. I have unwittingly ruined my country. A great industrial nation is controlled by its system of credit. Our system of credit is concentrated. The growth of the nation, therefore, and all our activities are in the hands of a few men. We have come to be one of the worst ruled, one of the most completely controlled and dominated governments in the civilized world. No longer a government by free opinion, no longer a government by conviction and the vote of the majority, but a government by the opinion and duress of a small group of dominant men.”

I hope that the quotes found throughout these pages sufficiently confirm that America has a gigantic problem and that the problem is within. This problem has gone on for a long time, as God said in Isaiah 61:4, it is “the desolations of MANY generations!” That verse may sound bleak and negative, but it is actually a part of God’s promise that Jesus quotes, and which He applies directly to Himself. BUT we must notice that those “on the receiving end” of the promise are those who receive into their hearts and lives the power of God’s Spirit. AND, that promise states that it would be THOSE RECIPIENTS who will repair and rebuild the desolations of many generations! So, the promise doesn't end in longstanding desolation, but in repair of that long-entrenched desolation! THERE IS HOPE EVEN NOW!

If you have any questions, etc. feel free to ask! I spent much time on this because I care about what is happening, AND because I believe God has given me this task.

Trying to be faithful to God and America... and really the rest of the world,

An Abraham Lincoln Page—VERY REVEALLING!!

Though he was already dead, hatred toward Lincoln by the evil, plotting International Bankers is conclusively demonstrated in an excerpt from The Times of London in 1865. They hated the undermining of their financial control of America, and plotted to reassert that strangle hold on the economy and upon the American people. During the crises America faced, I understand these money lenders offered to loan Lincoln money at 30% interest! In this dilemma, Lincoln's aid advised him of the simply solution, made available by the US Constitution, which resulted in Lincoln's authorising the printing of what was called "Greenbacks." That 1865 excerpt from the London newspaper is as follows:

"If this mischievous financial policy, which has its origin in North America, shall become endured down to a fixture, then that Government will furnish its own money without cost. It will pay off debts and be without debt. It will have all the money necessary to carry on its commerce. It will become prosperous without precedent in the history of the world. The brains and wealth of all countries will go to North America. That country must be destroyed, or it will destroy every monarchy on the globe."

Prior to that quote we find the evil, plotting attitude of these International bankers reflected against Lincoln's Greenbacks as follows:

"Slavery is likely to be abolished by the war power and chattel slavery destroyed. This, I and my European friends are glad of, for slavery is but the owning of labor and carries with it the care of the laborers, while the European plan, led by England, is that capital shall control labor by controlling wages. This can be done by controlling the money. The great debt that capitalists will see to it is made out of the war, must be used as a means to control the volume of money. To accomplish this, the bonds must be used as a banking basis. We are now awaiting for the Secretary of the Treasury to make his recommendation to Congress. It will not do to allow the greenback, as it is called, to circulate as money any length of time, as we cannot control that." (Hazard Circular, issued by the Rothschild controlled Bank of England, 1862)

Some comparatively brief, but useful background of this time in Lincoln's life and Presidency in relation to these bankers can be found at the following link: <http://www.thetruthseeker.co.uk/print.asp?ID=843>

Lincoln got help, not from the International bankers, but from the Tsar of Russia who also allowed no central bank in his country, and wished to help America free in the same way. This is likely why after the Federal Reserve was created in 1913, they wished to settle the old score with Russia's Tsar, which they did by financing the Russian Revolution in 1917 through funds of the American people via the Federal Reserve! Congressman Louis T. McFadden, the Fed's most outspoken and fearless critic, publicly exposed the Fed's financial aid of Russia in those early days. No wonder they wanted him dead, which they soon succeeded in achieving.

Various quotes from Lincoln :

The government should create, issue, and circulate all the currency and credits needed to satisfy the spending power of the government and the buying power of consumers.

The privilege of creating and issuing money is not only the Supreme prerogative of Government, but it is the Government's greatest creative opportunity.

By adoption of these principles, the taxpayers will be saved immense sums of interest. Money will cease to be master and become the servant of humanity.

Let it [the Constitution] be taught in schools, seminaries and in colleges; let it be written in primers, in spelling books and in almanacs; let it be preached from the pulpit, proclaimed in legislative halls, enforced in courts of justice. In short, let it become the political religion of the nation.

This country, with its institutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it. Whenever they shall grow weary of the existing government, they can exercise their Constitutional right of amending it or their revolutionary right to dismember it or overthrow it.

The philosophy of the classroom today will be the philosophy of government tomorrow.

I have never had a feeling, politically, that did not spring from ... the Declaration of Independence ... that all should have an equal chance. This is the sentiment embodied in the Declaration of Independence ... I would rather be assassinated on this spot than surrender it.

Discourage litigation. Persuade your neighbors to compromise whenever you can. Point out to them how the nominal winner is often a real loser - in fees, expenses, and waste of time. As a peacemaker the lawyer has a superior opportunity of being a good man. There will still be business enough.

When a man who is honestly mistaken hears the truth, he will either quit being mistaken or cease to be honest.

Through these clips you will get to know the man and his views better, and also the dangers from within our beloved country. I hope these clips are still accessible (on the internet) to you.

Toward the end, when R.P. is being interviewed separately, he is then under attack by some other reporter (or whatever?) who tries to make him look like he doesn't care if people of other nations get gassed, murdered, raped, etc. But these insinuations are full of blood-thirsty hypocrisy, for the US DID stand by & let people & nations get pillaged, etc...and as R. P. rightly says, the USA GAVE Saddam the gas to gas the Kurds, and then stood by while he did it!!

(NOTE: I do not condone all that Aaron Russo was involved in during his past. He is not a Christian, but here we see his clear presentation of what happened “in America,” and I think it presents it very well.)

The “blurb” which immediately follows came with the clip.

Hollywood director Russo goes in-depth for first time on the astounding admissions of Nick Rockefeller, including his prediction of 9/11 and the war on terror hoax, the Rockefeller's creation of women's lib, and the elite's ultimate plan for world population reduction and a microchipped society Aaron Russo joins Alex Jones for a fascinating sit-down in depth video interview on a plethora of important subjects. Aaron begins by describing how the draconian and mafia tactics of Chicago police woke him up to the fact that America wasn't free after his nightclub was routinely raided and he was forced to pay protection money. Aaron and Alex then cover a broad range of topics including the private run for profit federal reserve, Aaron's experience in the late 80's with the IRS when they retroactively passed laws to punish silver and gold traders, the real meaning of the word "democracy," what really happened on 9/11 and Aaron's relationship with Nick Rockefeller, who personally tried to recruit him on behalf of the CFR. Aaron also relates how Rockefeller told him that the elite created women's liberation to destroy the family and how they want to ultimately microchip and control the entire population. Rockefeller also told before 9/11 Russo that an unexpected "event" would catalyze the U.S. to invade Afghanistan and Iraq.

Some quotes from the Liberty-Tree website:

John Adams, quotes about Debt:

All the perplexities, confusion and distress in America arise not from defects in their Constitution or Confederation, nor from want of honor or virtue, so much as downright ignorance of the nature of coin, credit, and circulation.

Barry Goldwater, quotes about Debt:

Most Americans have no real understanding of the operation of the international money lenders. The accounts of the Federal Reserve System have never been audited. It operates outside of the control of Congress and manipulates the credit of the United States.

William Lyon Mackenzie King, quotes about Debt: (longest serving PM of Canada-21 yrs. but perhaps, as one person sadly put it, “one of the Rockefeller’s favourite stooges.” I can hardly bear that thought.)

Once a nation parts with the control of its currency and credit, it matters not who makes the nations laws. Usury, once in control, will wreck any nation. Until the control of the issue of currency and credit is restored to government and recognized as its most sacred responsibility, all talk of the sovereignty of parliament and of democracy is idle and futile.

(Here, King says exactly what Ron Paul has been saying for decades, as did former American “greats”!)

Abraham Lincoln, quotes about Debt:

I see in the near future a crisis approaching that unnerves me and causes me to tremble for the safety of my country; corporations have been enthroned, an era of corruption in High Places will follow, and the Money Power of the Country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the People, until the wealth is aggregated in a few hands, and the Republic is destroyed. I feel at this moment more anxiety for the safety of my country than ever before, even in the midst of war

James Madison, quotes about Debt:

History records that the money changers have used every form of abuse, intrigue, deceit, and violent means possible to maintain their control over governments by controlling the money and its issuance.

J. P. Morgan, quotes about Debt: (one of the main evil bankers of the late 1800s/early 1900s)

Capital must protect itself in every way... Debts must be collected and loans and mortgages foreclosed as soon as possible. When through a process of law the common people have lost their homes, they will be more tractable and more easily governed by the strong arm of the law applied by the central power of leading financiers. People without homes will not quarrel with their leaders. This is well known among our principle men now engaged in forming an imperialism of capitalism to govern the world. By dividing the people we can get them to expend their energies in fighting over questions of no importance to us except as teachers of the common herd.

Carroll Quigley, quotes about Debt: (one of “the enemy”, but who exposed their plans in his book, Tragedy and Hope)

The powers of financial capitalism had (a) far-reaching aim, nothing less than to create a world system of financial control in private hands able to dominate the political system of each country and the economy of the world as a whole. This system was to be controlled in a feudalist fashion by the central banks of the world acting in concert, by secret agreements arrived at in frequent meetings and conferences. The apex of the systems was to be the Bank for International Settlements in Basel, Switzerland, a private bank owned and controlled by the world's central banks which were themselves private corporations. Each central bank...sought to dominate its government by its ability to control Treasury loans, to manipulate foreign exchanges, to influence the level of economic activity in the country, and to influence cooperative politicians by subsequent economic rewards in the business world.

Milton Friedman, quotes about Debt: (Nobel prize winning author on economics)

I am myself persuaded, on the basis of extensive study of the historical evidence, that... the severity of each of the contractions - 1920-21, 1929-33, and 1937-38 - is directly attributable to acts of commission and omission by the Reserve authorities and would not have occurred under earlier monetary and banking arrangements.

Milton Friedman, quotes about Fed:

The power to determine the quantity of money... is too important, too pervasive, to be exercised by a few people, however public-spirited, if there is any feasible alternative. There is no need for such arbitrary power... Any system which gives so much power and so much discretion to a few men, [so] that mistakes - excusable or not - can have such far reaching effects, is a bad system. It is a bad system to believers in freedom just because it gives a few men such power without any effective check by the body politic - this is the key political argument against an independent central bank.

James A. Garfield, quotes about Fed:

Whoever controls the volume of money in any country is absolute master of all industry and commerce.

Henry Ford, quotes about Fed:

It is well enough that people of the nation do not understand our banking and monetary system, for if they did, I believe there would be a revolution before tomorrow morning.

Alan Greenspan, quotes about Fed: (This was BEFORE he became chairman of the Fed! OH, how he changed his tune!!)

In the absence of the gold standard, there is no way to protect savings from confiscation through inflation. ... This is the shabby secret of the welfare statist's tirades against gold. Deficit spending is simply a scheme for the confiscation of wealth. Gold stands in the way of this insidious process. It stands as a protector of property rights. If one grasps this, one has no difficulty in understanding the statist's antagonism toward the gold standard.

FOCUS ON DAVID ROCKEFELLER, A BIG PARTICIPANT IN THE ONE-WORLD AGENDA FOR YEARS!!

John F. Hylan, quotes about Fed: (mayor of NYC 1918-1925)

The real menace of our Republic is the invisible government which like a giant octopus sprawls its slimy legs over our cities states and nation. At the head is a small group of banking houses generally referred to as 'international bankers.' This little coterie... run our government for their own selfish ends. It operates under cover of a self-created screen...[and] seizes...our executive officers... legislative bodies... schools... courts... newspapers and every agency created for the public protection.

Hylan's most famous words against "the interests" was the following speech, made in 1922, while he was the sitting Mayor of New York City: (This is a fuller quote of the above...and realize, this was back in 1922!!!)

"...The real menace of our republic is this invisible government which like a giant octopus sprawls its slimy length over City, State, and nation... It seizes in its long and powerful tentacles our executive officers, our legislative bodies, our schools, our courts, our newspapers, and every agency created for the public protection..."

"To depart from mere generalizations, let me say that at the head of this octopus are the Rockefeller-Standard Oil interest and a small group of powerful banking houses generally referred to as the international bankers. The little coterie of powerful international bankers virtually run the United States government for their own selfish purposes."

"They practically control both parties, write political platforms, make catspaws of party leaders, use the leading men of private organizations, and resort to every device to place in nomination for high public office only such candidates as will be amenable to the dictates of corrupt big business..."

"These international bankers and Rockefeller-Standard Oil interests control the majority of the newspapers and magazines in this country. They use the columns of these papers to club into submission or drive out of office public officials who refuse to do the bidding of the powerful corrupt cliques which compose the invisible government..."

This "invisible government", Hylan and others argued, exercised its control of the US Government through the Federal Reserve.

Since former NY mayor Hylan (above) specifically mentioned the Rockefeller family, I will here insert some quotes from David Rockefeller so he can speak for himself. David Rockefeller is the founder and/or chairman, etc of various evil one-world organizations determined to dissolve the sovereignty of America and other countries, and bring in this "New World Order" (mentioned so many times by Bush Sr. & others) under their control. Rockefeller quotes are as follow:

David Rockefeller quotes:

Source: Sept. 23, 1994

This present window of opportunity, during which a truly peaceful and interdependent world order might be built, will not be open for too long - We are on the verge of a global transformation. All we need is the right major crisis and the nations will accept the New World Order.

Quote by:

David Rockefeller

(1915-) Internationalist billionaire, CFR kingpin, founder of the Trilateralist Commission, World Order Godfather

Date: June 1991 Baden, Germany

Source: Bilderberger Meeting, Baden, Germany (The Bilderbergs are one of the most powerful, elitist, one-world government group, and were founded by a former Nazi SS man—the now-deceased king of the Netherlands—in 1954.)

"We are grateful to the Washington Post, The New York Times, Time Magazine and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promises of discretion for almost forty years."

"It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world if we had been subjected to the lights of publicity during those years. But, the world is now more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a world government. The supranational sovereignty of an intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national auto-determination practiced in past centuries."

David Rockefeller quotes:

Everything is in place - after 500 years - to build a true 'new world' in the Western Hemisphere." And what happens if we don't pass NAFTA? "I truly don't think that 'criminal' would be too strong a word" for "rejecting NAFTA.

David Rockefeller writes on pages 404 and 405 of his memoirs (Notice at the end, he admits the truth!):

"The anti-Rockefeller focus of these otherwise incompatible political positions [across the political spectrum] owes much to Populism. 'Populists' believe in conspiracies, and one of the most enduring is that a secret group of international bankers and capitalists, and their minions, control the world's economy. Because of my name and prominence as the head of the Chase for many years, I have earned the distinction of 'conspirator in chief' from some of these people... Some even believe we are part of a secret cabal working against the best interests of the United States, characterizing my family and me as 'internationalists' and of conspiring with others around the world to build a more integrated global political and economic structure - one world, if you will. If that is the charge, I stand guilty, and I am proud of it."

Robert Hemphill, quotes about Fed: (Credit Manager of Federal Reserve Bank, Atlanta, Ga.)

If all the bank loans were paid, no one could have a bank deposit, and there would not be a dollar of coin or currency in circulation. This is a staggering thought. We are completely dependent on the commercial Banks. Someone has to borrow every dollar we have in circulation, cash or credit. If the Banks create ample synthetic money we are prosperous; if not, we starve. We are absolutely without a permanent money system. When one gets a complete grasp of the picture, the tragic absurdity of our hopeless position is almost incredible, but there it is. It is the most important subject intelligent persons can investigate and reflect upon. It is so important that our present civilization may collapse unless it becomes widely understood and the defects remedied very soon.

Andrew Jackson, quotes about Fed:

The bold effort the present (central) bank had made to control the government ... are but premonitions of the fate that await the American people should they be deluded into a perpetuation of this institution or the establishment of another like it.

Andrew Jackson, quotes about Fed:

You are a den of vipers and thieves. I intend to rout you out, and by the grace of the Eternal God, WILL rout you out.

Thomas Jefferson, quotes about Fed:

I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. Already they have raised up a moneyed aristocracy that has set the Government at defiance. The issuing power should be taken from the banks and restored to the people to whom it properly belongs.

Thomas Jefferson, quotes about Fed:

I, however, place economy among the first and most important republican virtues, and public debt as the greatest of the dangers to be feared.

Thomas Jefferson, quotes about Fed:

If the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of their money, first by inflation and then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around them (around the banks), will deprive the people of their property until their children will wake up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered.

Peter Kershaw, quotes about Fed:

The Founding Fathers of this great land had no difficulty whatsoever understanding the agenda of bankers, and they frequently referred to them and their kind as, quote, 'friends of paper money.' They hated the Bank of England, in particular, and felt that even were we successful in winning our independence from England and King George, we could never truly be a nation of freemen, unless we had an honest money system. Through ignorance, but moreover, because of apathy, a small, but wealthy, clique of power brokers have robbed us of our Rights and Liberties, and we are being raped of our wealth. We are paying the price for the near-comatose levels of complacency by our parents, and only God knows what might become of our children, should we not work diligently to shake this country from its slumber! Many a nation has lost its freedom at the end of a gun barrel, but here in America, we just decided to hand it over voluntarily. Worse yet, we paid for the tyranny and usurpation out of our own pockets with "voluntary" tax contributions and the use of a debt-laden fiat currency! ("Fiat currency" means money made out of nothing, that is, with no real backing.)

The title of this group of quotes “flips” the title of globalist Carroll Quigley’s book, Tragedy and Hope.

These quotes alone clearly illustrate the plan for a one-world government, which, having been in existence for generations, includes the loss of U.S. sovereignty, placing it under the control of the one-world, globalist elites.

“Today America would be outraged if UN troops entered Los Angeles to restore order [referring to the 1991 LA Riot]. Tomorrow they will be grateful! This is especially true if they were told that there was an outside threat from beyond, whether real or promulgated, that threatened our very existence. It is then that all people of the world will plead to deliver them from this evil. The one thing every man fears is the unknown. When presented with this scenario, individual rights will be willingly relinquished for the guarantee of their well being granted to them by the World Government.” - Henry Kissinger 1991 Bilderberg Conference, Evians, France.

“The interests behind the Bush Administration, such as the CFR, the Trilateral Commission - founded by Brzezinski for David Rockefeller - and the Bilderberg Group have prepared for and are now moving to implement open world dictatorship within the next five years.” - Dr. Johannes Koepl - former official of the German Ministry for Defense and adviser to NATO.

“For more than a century, ideological extremists at either end of the political spectrum have seized upon well-publicized incidents to attack the Rockefeller family for the inordinate influence they claim we wield over American political and economic institutions. Some even believe we are part of a secret cabal working against the best interests of the United States, characterizing my family and me as ‘internationalists’ and of conspiring with others around the world to build a more integrated global political and economic structure - one world, if you will. If that’s the charge, I stand guilty, and I am proud of it.” - David Rockefeller, Memoirs , 2002

A Tribute to Louis T. McFadden

A good number of persons have been courageous enough to “sound the alarm” in the ears of those in high places, as well as in our ears, if we would listen. Many of these people were merely re-echoing the immense danger America then faced, and which was the very, pre-eminent danger our Founding Fathers warned us against. The bravery of men like McFadden, who dared to speak out, merits them the respect and gratitude of us all. As a northern West Virginian, my neighbors from Pennsylvania have reason to be proud of their heroic Congressman. Others, including our 28th President Woodrow Wilson who signed the Federal Reserve into existence in 1913, revealed the awesome power of the very ones which McFadden repeatedly and fearlessly exposed. In his book, The New Freedom (1913, the same year the Federal Reserve was craftily, deceitfully passed in Congress), President Wilson wrote: “Since I entered politics, I have chiefly had men's views confided to me privately. Some of the biggest men in the U.S., in the field of commerce and manufacturing, are afraid of somebody, are afraid of something. They know that there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that they had better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it.”

The writing of this long article began as a result of what I saw happen to 2008 Presidential candidate, Ron Paul, who for many years and during this past Presidential campaign spoke out graciously, but candidly about the very same danger...the chief cancer that has been eating away at the heart and life of America. My words are no exaggeration. In his day, Congressman McFadden was said to be anti-Semitic, as a means to discredit him. I viewed video clips in which Ron Paul was made to appear anti-American and just plain stupid. If you would dare to spend the time to investigate into this matter for yourself, as I have laid it out in this long presentation, I am confident you would see that there is more evidence than necessary to confirm the truth of the fact, the seriousness and the centrality of this plague that has been sucking the blood of the United States and the world for generations. Many other sources of information are available. I have merely tried to provided you with some of the cream, so to speak.

In supplying various web sites/pages, I cannot be responsible for all the content you may find on these sites. I have tried to provide you with the words of the men themselves, like McFadden or our Founding Fathers, etc. Some web pages with the writings of Congressman Louis T. McFadden are as follow:

Congressman McFadden and others likeminded were trying to defend our nation and its Constitution at the same time an ever-increasing number of others were stealthily securing the chains of slavery upon their new-gotten prize: the economy and control of the United States. This is not an overstatement! The ranks of our nation have been being filled by those who would complete the task of stripping America of its Independence and Sovereignty. They hate the America reflected by such men as our Founding Fathers, though they have made great use of terms such as “Patriot,” “Patriotism and “American.” These people embrace and propagate a far different ideology, that is certain, and they have largely taken over our nation by deceit and determination...while America slept. Read again the red text on page one regarding Toynbee, and I cannot overemphasize the seriousness of the content of the article, War on Sovereignty, which is listed there, too, and has a link to it.

The Cleansing of the Temple

You may be familiar with the true Bible account of Jesus Christ driving the “money-changers” from the Jewish Temple, as recorded in the Gospels (Matthew 21:13). Jesus seems to have blended Isaiah 56:7 with Jeremiah 7:11 when He declared in their presence and to their shame: “It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves.” Congressman McFadden (previous page) made use of Jesus’ words during a speech in Congress on June 10, 1932 as follows:

“What is needed here is a return to the Constitution of the United States. We need to have a complete divorce of Bank and State. The old struggle that was fought out here in Jackson's day must be fought over again... The Federal Reserve Act should be repealed and the Federal Reserve Banks, having violated their charters, should be liquidated immediately. Faithless Government officers who have violated their oaths of office should be impeached and brought to trial. Unless this is done by us, I predict that the American people, outraged, robbed, pillaged, insulted, and betrayed as they are in their own land, will rise in their wrath and send a President here who will sweep the money changers out of the temple.”

Perhaps McFadden felt like British historian, Lord Acton, who declared: “The issue which has swept down the centuries and which will have to be fought sooner or later is the people versus the banks.” Lord Acton was most likely referring to “the International Bankers.”

No one counterfeits junk, so the enemies of our country, against whom McFadden stood, made use of Jesus’ reference, as we swill see. Satan still quotes Scripture! Toynbee (see page two) assured his cronies, predicting “I believe that the monster of sovereignty is doomed to perish by our sword,” and “Sovereignty will cease in fact, if not in name, to be a local affair.” Later in Matthew’s Gospel (mentioned above), Jesus referred to the “abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place where it ought not” (Matthew 24:15, Mark 13:14). This apparently refers to the Roman army that destroyed Jerusalem, including its Temple, defiling the place with their pagan presence and practices. Toynbee labelled sovereign countries (e.g. the USA) as “an abomination of desolation standing in the place where it ought not!” He referred to people who are devoted to their country as “deluded votaries.” Finally he stated that they were denying with their mouths what they were doing with their hands, that is, fulfilling the task they felt was theirs for their generation, to bring about a one-world government or global community, just as we have been hearing proclaimed and praised by many of our own government leaders, including George Bush Sr., etc. See some of the quotes I have throughout this long article, and you will see the names and words of other such persons who are out to swallow America into a one-world system. The United Nations is a chief instrument in this conspiracy, and Toynbee was in the middle of the failed predecessor of the U.N., that is, the so-called League of Nations, created after World War 1 in 1919. Leaders of the U.N. are among those promoting the dissolving of national sovereignties. Those who follow in Toynbee’s steps are using that oft-repeated phrase, “new world order.” In recent times, it has even been admitted that “Sovereignty is the big obstacle.” For these people, who deny with their lips what they do with their hands, America as we have known and loved it, must cease to exist! These “new world order” adherents view America’s sovereignty as “the abomination of desolation which is standing where it ought not,” and they are working feverishly and deceitfully to “cleanse the temple.” One thing these people do is to redefine terms, such as “Sovereignty” and “Constitution,” and try to force Americans to accept a perverted and emaciated “adapted form” of these blessed, God-given privileges, and become enslaved to their own one-world system in which Jesus Christ Himself is thrown out of the temple!

After Jesus had “cleansed the Temple,” His life and ministry were coming to an end, and He was facing the Cross with glorious triumph of a completed task. However, since His very own people, the Jews, had rejected Him, He wept over the city of Jerusalem (Luke 19:41-6; Matthew 23:37) and said “See, your house is left unto you desolate.” What a change! First He called it “My Father’s house,” but since they rejected Him, He let them have what they wanted, calling it “Your house”...but added, “is desolate.” This is the worst “abomination of desolation standing where it ought not,” where Jesus Christ is not given His proper place, and where man is determined to be in control. Dear countrymen, every U.S. citizen must realise that the way to conquer this evil, long-entrenched plot to overthrow America is by a thorough, nation-wide repentance and return to God and His salvation from sin in its entirety. Remember, these one-world, global-community people will still retain our beloved terms such as “patriotism,” etc. while they plot our nation’s destruction. We, too, may do the same with temple cleansing. It is not enough to cleanse the temple of America from these evil usurpers, but we must cleanse our own individual temple! America must cleanse its temple, and clear the table. The Bible makes it crystal clear that our body is to be the Temple in which God lives, working His holy and right purposes in us and through us. America and Americans need to get back to the Bible...back to the words and way and will of Jesus Christ. If we fail to come clean in utter, thorough abandonment to God, then Christ will again be weeping...this time it will be for us!

Epilogue

So, how do we cleanse the temple? First of all, determine to see this thing to the end, or be willing to die in the process. Every individual must be ready to get thoroughly right with God. To do this, we will face other things in the process. The Bible speaks of “things that accompany salvation” (Hebrews 6:7), and the “things,” would include the removal of any and all things on which God and Christ cannot put approval. I mentioned on the previous page those who wish to end the Sovereignty of the United States, though they live among its citizens as apparent “friends.” I said that such person will still “pay lip service” to terms such as “patriot,” “American,” etc. The same can be very properly applied to those who use Bible terms, yet live and act in such a way as to undermine or destroy the very Way they pay lip service to. Yes, we must walk the walk, as well as talk the talk.

History provides abundant demonstration of how thorough a job God’s salvation from sin can redeem and rescue an individual, a community and even a nation. Though we are still human and therefore capable of either improvement or failure, yet nothing can so utterly restore humanity like real Bible salvation. Neither government nor mere “religion” can legislate goodness, much less godliness. Let me briefly demonstrate what I mean. Some historians have declared that what happened here in England, with what has been called The Evangelical Revival (or Awakening) during the 18th century saved England from a bloody revolution as took place in France. Perhaps the key “human instrument” in turning the nation around was John Wesley, founder-leader of the Methodist Societies (the Methodist Church was formed after Wesley’s death in 1791). The very title of the book, England: Before and After Wesley (1938), hints at the great national change I refer to. In 2004, some British Christian groups commemorated the centenary of the Welsh Revival of 1904, during which I understand sheds had to be built to house the many stolen tools that miners were returning in their whole-hearted desire to be thoroughly right with God...and that was without any human—religious or otherwise—telling them what they should do! When people really want to get right with God, all sin, all hidden wrongs will be abandoned like the plague, as they say. That would apply to every aspect of corruption lurking in the halls of local to national government, the police, the education system...on and on to street level, and sweeping through the markets and thoroughfares. Fraud dies from terminal illness when God enters the life. It would be a tsunami of God’s glory sweeping away all sin in its path. This tsunami can enter any individual, community or nation that invites it, but one day this tsunami will come uninvited...even though these long-planning world controllers think they have all their pieces nearly in place. One day the “game” will be over. The Bible says that people will call for the rocks and mountains to cover them and hide them from the wrath of God. In the final analysis, there are only two paths we travel—either we love and obey God, or we don’t; simple as that. Whether or not we are among the elite globalists or not will then be irrelevant. That we were not bosom-buddies of Hitler, Al Capone or any other “bad guys” you can think of, will again be irrelevant. Do you love and obey God? THAT’S the issue! Our best wisdom and joy is to forsake all attempts to evade or hide from the truth.

I know there are many people who “hate America” and “hate the American Dream.” To these, but also to millions of others who, for various reasons, are totally unaware of the things I have tried to lay out in this publication, let me say this: America and The American Dream has been raped, plundered and perverted, and its complete collapse is on the horizon. On page 17 which is dedicated to Abraham Lincoln, I supply quotes which leave no question how much the International Bankers that controlled Europe and Britain hated “the American Experiment.” Read again what they said! America WAS beautiful and God-blessed. Those bankers expressed way back in the 1860s that they desired to infiltrate and thereby control America. President Andrew Jackson had “killed” their earlier attempt (see page 13), but they had returned with vengeance. They hated Lincoln’s interest-free “Greenbacks” because they couldn’t control it. These people are determined to control the world’s economy, and thereby the entire world. They pulled it off in 1913 with the creation of The Federal Reserve, and then other linked agencies that followed. Many people say that these International Bankers are Jewish. Others implicate the Jesuits, Freemasons, etc. I simply say that whoever they are, they are powerful beyond words (like JFK said in his speech—see p.4)...and they are evil. Massive population reduction is their stated plan...and I mean to a percentage you would not grasp! Put the exterminated victims of Hitler, Stalin, Chairman Mao and Pol Put together and you’re just beginning. The American Dream is not intended to be a life of self-pleasing indulgence and corruption of all sorts and sizes. The glory of America will not be available to old or new Americans unless they go back to the roots of America’s Founding Fathers.

I have made it plain that to truly save America, there can be no hiding of anything from God. Sure, God sees everything, anyway, but I obviously refer to our own personal readiness and willingness to have a total clear-out: “EVERYTHING MUST GO!” But this applies equally to all elected officials in such a “Republic” as America was and yet supposed to be. As John Adams, our 2nd President, stated it: “Liberty cannot be preserved without a general knowledge among the people, who have... a right, an indisputable, unalienable, indefeasible, divine right to that most dreaded and envied kind of knowledge, I mean the characters and conduct of their rulers.” Similarly, Lord Acton of Victorian Britain (well-known for his comment: “Power corrupts, and absolute power corrupts absolutely”) said, “Everything secret degenerates, even the administration of justice; nothing is safe that does not show how it can bear discussion and publicity.” Letter 23, Jan. 1861. This is completely different than the secrecy of the meeting to plan the founding of the Federal Reserve and David Rockefeller's praise for the co-operative secrecy of the media for over 40 years that enabled them to pursue their one-world government plan without “the bright lights of publicity.” Sure, there are governmental matters that must not be in the public domain, for reasons of national security, but the bulk of what I have discussed in this production has been the presence of an evil strategy to destroy rather America rather than keep it secure. I am so thankful for the website <http://liberty-tree.ca/> for their enormous volume and variety of quotes. I take my hat off to them! I encourage you to go to their site and search by subject, like Fed, Banking, Constitution, etc or by Author. If you don't recognise the name of a person being quoted, try to find out who they were/are and what they did/do.

With some hesitation I wish to bring to your attention a quote by a man held in high esteem. However, the philosophy behind the words of the quote disturbs me greatly. Perhaps you can help me understand the apparent incongruity. The person is Winston Churchill. First of all, I will quote words from his “Reply” as recorded in The Times 1938 (before WW2 started) which seem admirable. His words are as follows: “I have always said that if Great Britain were defeated in war I hoped we should find a Hitler to lead us back to our rightful position among the nations. I am sorry, however, that he has not been mellowed by the great success that has attended him. The whole world would rejoice to see the Hitler of peace and tolerance, and nothing would adorn his name in world history so much as acts of magnanimity and of mercy and of pity to the forlorn and friendless, to the weak and poor. ... Let this great man search his own heart and conscience before he accuses anyone of being a warmonger.” Churchill's other words which shocked me deeply are from an address of his in 1937 to The Palestine Royal Commission, and are as follows: “I do not agree that the dog in a manger has the final right to the manger even though he may have lain there for a very long time. I do not admit that right. I do not admit for instance, that a great wrong has been done to the Red Indians of America or the black people of Australia. I do not admit that a wrong has been done to these people by the fact that a stronger race, a higher-grade race, a more worldly wise race to put it that way, has come in and taken their place.” I could add more background to that quote, but will just leave it. Yet, two things hit me: 1) he illustrated his views by using the American Indians (native Americans), which is relevant to my writing, for I am primarily writing about America, and 2) the philosophy and the second quote seems little or no different than any other evil tyrant we could imagine. I don't understand! I have told about our great President, Andrew Jackson, who almost alone fought the International bankers and drove them from our shores. I praise his accomplishment, for it was a colossal blessing to our country. Yet, I understand that Jackson was involved in the horrendous displacement of the American Indians. This seems somewhat akin to Churchill's adopted view of the propriety of an allegedly stronger, higher-grade, more worldly-wise race displacing the weaker. WHY AM I SAYING THIS? I say this because individual and national repentance for ALL sin and sinning includes not only the present, but the past, for in dealing with the past and present, we secure the future. Though I cannot go into detail, yet not only the Indians, but those that call themselves “black,” know very well that their ancestors committed atrocities to their own people for centuries before American even existed as a country. Such evil continues today around the world, where people commit atrocities to their own, while they live in luxury and pleasure, and the others in fear and poverty. Americans need to repent, forsake sin and make as thorough restitution as possible. The TRUE story recorded in the short Bible book, Jonah, demonstrates that wide-scale repentance and national revival is genuinely possible...and they were “pagans!!” There is hope for America...IF! And if America gets its own house in order (in the eyes of God), then it can be the spiritual and material blessing to others around the world as God would want it to be. America needs to get back to the Constitution, YES, but it also needs to get back to the Bible! As stated on page1, Arthur Schlesinger (1917-2007) said “For most Americans the Constitution had become a hazy document, cited like the Bible on ceremonial occasions but forgotten in the daily transactions of life.” America, Get back to the God of the Bible!

The New World Order should take a lesson from this painting of the Pilgrims: that is, centered around the Bible, the Word of God!

(They were heading for The New World)

I borrow the painting and accompanying information from The Pilgrim Hall Museum's website.

Embarkation of the Pilgrims By Edgar Parker after Robert Weir. 1875

In 1836, the United States government commissioned Robert W. Weir to paint The Picture of the Embarkation of the Pilgrims from Delfthaven in Holland "for filling the vacant panels in the rotunda of the Capital" in Washington, D.C. It was one of several large scale (12' x 18') paintings chosen to represent significant historical moments leading to the founding of the American Republic. Completed in 1843, it depicts the Pilgrim families gathered around their pastor, John Robinson, for a farewell service on the deck of the Speedwell before its departure from Holland.

Weir worked on the Embarkation for over seven years. He produced several small-scale studies that are owned by the Pilgrim Society. The Pilgrim Society commissioned Massachusetts artist Edgar Parker to recreate Weir's well-known painting for the museum in 1875.

This well-known painting can be found on the reverse of the United States $10,000 bill.

In the romantic mode of 19th century history painting, the artist has employed symbolism, sentimentality, and theatrical devices for his effect. Arms and armor, for use against the dangers of the New World, lie in the foreground beside a screw that later saved the Mayflower from disaster in a storm at sea. A rainbow, signifying hope, shines brightly through the clouds.

FINAL WORD OF APOLOGY: Please forgive my errors and the lack of finishing polish! I wrote this in early 2008, and desired to make it available at that time as the Presidential contest was still going on, but left it lay. Perhaps it is better now, so it will not likely be viewed as trying to influence voters. I love America. I see that America's time is running out. Americans need to stop playing...and that includes the churches! Radical action is needed without delay, and we must each first be radical with ourselves. Start ripping off the covers. Make no excuses. Don't just be a spectator. Go all out!

FINAL WORD OF ADVICE: Don't fight each other! Smokescreens & Diversions abound! The enemy is sin & Satan.
